PRICE ONE CENT.

NEW YORK, MONDAY, DECEMBER 9, 1889.

PRICE ONE CENT.

nom Pedro Fears It Has Come Before the People Are Ready.

He Encouraged Liberal Measures. but Favored Gradual Progression.

Ready to Go Back if the People Should Call for Him.

Depyright 1889, by The Press Publishing Company (New York World). TREECIAL CABLE DESPATCH TO THE WORLD, I LISBON, Dec. 8. -The dethroned Emperor of Brazil gave to THE WORLD'S correspondent to-day the first extended talk which he has given to any newspaper since the revolation. When he arrive d here yesterday he was studiously reticent. The few utterances of his which I cabled you were gleaned from fragments of gossip, while Dom Pedro was surrounded by the distinguished people who had assembled to meet him. To-day the ex-Emperor, who has been a personal friend of mine for years, received me in his apartments at the Hotel Braganza to give me his epinion of the effects of the revolution which stripped him of his throne.

In the first place it is important to understand that neither the ex-Emperor nor any of his adherents regards the revolution as final. "My visit to the United States," said the ex-Emperor, "made a deep impression on my mind. What I saw there convinced me beyond doubt of the value, the superiority of a free government. Notwithstanding recent events in Brazil I still adhere strongly to this opinion, but I fear the people of Brazil have not yet reached the stage of development which enables nations to derive full and free profit from free institutions. Time alone will tell, but I firmly believe it will prove the correctness of my views.

"I will not venture," he continued, " now to pass judgment on the effects of the revolution. Let the people of Brazil and history judge of it. You know I was never opposed to liberal measures. I always encouraged them, but I was above all anxious that my people should progress gradually till they reached the point which would enable them to adopt absolutely free institutions with great advantage to themselves. That time has not come yet. Now all is in the hands of God.

**I much fear that there are exaggerated political ambitions dominant in Brazil which will surely bring misfortune on the country. Both the English and the American peoples had generations of experience which cannot be improvised among an imperfectly edupated nation like Brazil, whose people possess more imagination than common sense in political matters. I don't think the Brazilstage of civilization required to fit them for absolutely free government. It is absurd to draw any analogy between them and the people of the United States. The present Provisional Government is at best an experiment which will probably result in disappointment."

"Do you propose to issue a manifesto?" Inquired THE WORLD's representative.

"I have been strongly urged to do so," was Dom Pedro's reply. "but what for? Manifestos are only words, which have practically no utility in our time."

'Do you mean to go back to Brazil ?" "Yes, if the Brazilian people call me I will go back, Why not? I never authorized anybody to say I would not go back." This is the sole political pronouncement made by Dom Pedro.

JAMES J. O'KELLY, M. P. DRIVEN BY A DEAD MAN.

Mr. French Has a Grussome Ride in a Hansom Cab. A bansom cab, in which sat G. B. French, the dramatic agent, of No. 74 East Fiftysixth street, bowled up Fifth avenue Saturday night. On the box was James McCooey, who held the reins listlessly in his hands. McCooey attracted much attention hands. McCooey attracted much attention from pedestrians by the manner in which he loiled from side to side, threatening to fall from his perch at any moment. The man recemed to be asleep, and a number of men followed the cab on a run until Forty-seventh street was reached, when the horse was stopped. The driver made no remonstrance, and after the vehicle had been drawn alongside the curb McCooey was lifted off his seat and laid on the sidewalk. A telephone message was sent from the Windsor Hotel to Police Headquarters, asking for an officer to take care of a drunken cab-driver. Policeman William J. Nealy, of the East Fffty-first street station, soon arrived, and at a glance saw that the man was dead. He had died on his seat, of heart disease. Then Mr. French got out of the cab and the body of the diriver was placed inside and driven by the officer to the station-house. McCooey was forty-seven years of age and lived at No. 329 East Twenty-fourth street.

Found His Patient a Lunatic. PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Dec. 8. - John B. Stock, the well-known Masonic-mark manufacturer, was sent to the Philadelphia Hospital Priday insane. He had been living at a bearding-house at No. 1125 Walnut street, with his wife and young son. Thursday he went home with a violent headsone. The hext day he sent for his physician. Dr. Decker, and while the latter was taking to Mrs. Stock her husband sudlenly deat him a blow on the temple, and shouted: "Tilkill you." Dr. Decker ran for assistance. The insane man tarned on his wife, knocked her down, and rushed after the doctor. Hatless and coadless the crasy man pursued Dr. Decker along two or taree streets into J. S. Jones a drug store, on the corner of Twelfth and Spruce alreets, where he was overpowered. Stock is thought to be hopelessly lineare. facturer, was sent to the Philadelphia

A SOLDIER'S FUNERAL EYES ON CONGRESS

Such Will Be that of Jefferson Davis The World's Fair Site Is in Their Hands on Wednesday.

His Body to Be Taken to the Tomb on a Caisson.

A $100,000 Fund Proposed to Be Raised for His Family.

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 9. "The funeral of Jefferson Davis, on Wednesday next, is to be a thoroughly military affair. His body will be carried to the cemetery on a caisson, and will be followed by a long procession of organizations, in which the military and the veterans will take precedence.

Members both of Confederate Camps and of Grand Army Posts will appear in the procession, all other thoughts than the one that the dead man had been a brave and honorable soldier under the Stars and Stripes being thrown aside for this hour.

The public funeral services will probably be held, in accordance with Bishop Galleher's idea, n the portice of the City Hall, so that thousands of people, standing in Lafayette Square, may witness the ceremonies.

The people generally are taking advantage of the days in which the body of the dead leader lies in state, and there is a constant stream of mee and women passing in and out of the Com-cil Chamber, where the catataloue is placed. Children are also brought to look upon the re-

Memorial services were held in the churches Memorial services with South to raise a popular subscription for the family of the dead exhieftain finds tavor everywhere, and the call will, beyond doubt, meet with a most generous chieftain finds tavor everywhere, and the call will, beyond doubt, meet with a most generous and hearty response.

Word comes from Kentucky pledging that State to contribute $10,000 towards a fund of $100,000 for Mrs. Davis.

Other States were equally liberal in their proposals, and besides raising this fund there is a singestion that money for a monument be subsectibed, the shatt to be placed wherever Mrs. I avis may desire.

I avis may desire.

I despatch from Louisville, Ky., proffers to Mrs. Davis for use in the final interment of her husband's body the heautiful lot in Cave Hill Cemetery set aside for the tomb of President Zachary Tavior, but never used.

The sword which Mr. Davis wore in the Black Hawk war will be buried with him.

Even to the shipping in the bay the signs of mouroing about this city have extended. The firitish steamship flags were placed at half-mast yesterday.

HUSBANDS.

Pretty Miler d Wasner Has a Superfluity of Liege Lords.

A pretty woman is seldom without a husband if she really wants one, but from the evidence produced before Judge Van Wyck in the City Court, Brooklyn, it appears that Mildred Kraft, nee Wasner, wanted three.

three different States-New York, New Jersey and Connecticut.

According to the testimony Mildred's maiden name was Wasner, and it was under this name that she married her first husband, William W.

name was Wasner, and it was under this name that she married her first husband, William W. Sheller, in October, 1884. The marriage was performed by the flev. Fr. Decus, of the Church of the Strangers in this city.

Next the young woman enyaged the attentions of Robert Hermann Keller, another respectable young man, and sometime in December, 1884, Midrad captured her second husband, the marriage taking place in New Jersey.

It was not long before Midred again turned her attentions towards young Kraft, the plaintiff in the suit tried yesterday. The couple met, and it was not long before they were married. That was in Angust, 1888, and the ceremony was performed in Greenwich, Conn.

Kraft lived with her until the following November, when he learned his partner had another nusband living and he deserted her and began the suit to have the marriage annulled.

Husband No. 1, William W. Sheller, was in court and identified a photograph of Midred as that of the woman he had married in 1884.

She is still his wife, he said, although he had hever lived with her, he being only eighteen years old when the marriage took place.

"After she married me she married a man named Keeler," said the witness.

"Are you sure of that?" asked the Judge,

"We have abundant proof of it, your Honor," said Lawer Exchwege.

"This woman should be brought to the attention of District-Attorney Fellows,"

Kraft said he knew the girl had been married when he wedded her, but was given to understand that she had been divorced.

Mr. George J. Kraft, the plaintiff s father, was son by an Evisking Woman reporter to-day.

"I didn't learn of my son's marriage to this woman until some time after it had occurred, and I have seen her but once since.

"I didn't learn of my son's marriage to this woman until some time after it had occurred, and I have seen her but once since.

"I didn't learn of my son's marriage to this woman until some time after it had occurred, and I have seen her but once since.

"I am very giad the matt r is settled. No, my son cannot be

The Subject Before the House. (From Munsey's Weekly, ]

Waiter (to members of debating club) -Here are the joints you ordered, gentlemen. Member of Club-Well, we'll now proceed to The Miseries of Rank.

[From Texas Siftings.] Haughty Baron-Waiter, what have you got o eat? Waiter-Baron, I can recommend half a roas Haughty Baron—Half a duck! No. I thank you. How do I know who eat the other balf? It might be some vile publican.

Mutual Interrogatories. "William," said she severely. "how man more times are you going to ask me to marry you "" Ciare," said he, with equal stornness, "how much longer are you going to persist in refusing me ?"

for Disposal.

"Hustlers" for New York City Needed in Washington.

"The World's" Personal Canvass of Business Men Yields $365,000.

New York City stands in urgent need of a band of active "hustlers," who will invade Washington and urgo the claims of this city as a site for the World's Fair. Chicago and St. Louis have delegates stationed there, who are putting in good strokes, while New York remains idle. The necessity for prompt action by Congress is illustrated by the poor showing which the United States made at the Paris Exposition. When the French nation extended their invitation to this country to place our exhibits in the Exposition, Congress dawdled about the invitation, and when it was accepted the time was so short that there was an unrepresentative was so short that there was an unrepresentative display in Paris.

Other nations of the world had responded promptly, and their exhibits were successful. It is generally conceded that Congress will not take up the World's Fair question until after the holidays, and the official invitations to nations of the earth will not be extended until the site question is decided.

This will allow but two years for preparation. Nearly double that time was given by the Philadelphia Centennial Exhibition of 1870, and six years were consumed in preliminaries.

So far New York can go before Congress with a fund of 25,000,000, and a good prospect of its being doubled. Up to this morning $5,164, 342 had been secured from various sources.

Of this sum $364,902 can be credited to The Wongh's caavassers, whose efforts in the Exposition's behalf are worthy of the highest praise.

praise.

No other newspaper has succeeded in getting such a sum, every dollar of which is good, payable on demand.

Magnificent Undertaking of the Hebrew Charitable Societies of New York.

At the American Institute. Third avenue and Sixty-third street, Mayor Grant will preside this evening at the opening of another great fair by the Hebrew Societies of this city.

The fair will, it is believed, excel the wonderful Monteilore Fair of three years ago, when $200,000 was raised for the Home for the Aged and Infirm which was named in honor of Moses Monteflore, the "old man benevolent." The Hebrew Free School Association has been struggling for years under the most unpropitious conditions to educate the young children of the poor in English and Hebrew literature, technical, industrial and religious branches. It has had cramped quarters at 206 East Broadway.

The Aguilar Free Library Association and the Young Men's Hebrew Association, also doing much good work for the elevation of the

The story came out in a snit brought by Edward J. Kraft, son of George J. Kraft, the wealthy importer, of Chambers street, and as a result young Kraft is a free man to-day.

The suit was tried yesterday, and at its conclusion Judge Van Wyrk suggested that the evidence be presented to District Attorney Fellows with a view to having the fair but fickle charmer prosecuted for bigamy.

Mildred did not appear in court to defend her good name, but she is said to be only twenty-three years of age, with dark hair and sparking eyes.

This remarkable young woman, who has three husbands all alive, has had a varied experience in the marriage line. She has been married in three different States—New York, Kew Jersey doing much good work for the elevation of the wonth of the city, join with the Hebrew Free Schoel Association in this enterprise.

The product of this great fair will be devoted to the establishment, in the lower part of the tothe establishment, in the lower part of the tothe, and the lower part of the city, join with the Hebrew Free Schoel Association in this enterprise.

The product of this great fair will be devoted to the establishment, in the lower part of the tothe establishment, in the lower part of the city, join with the Hebrew Free Schoel Association it his confidence school association it his confidence has completed to this great fair will be schoel association this control the city, join with the left would find the control the city, join with the left would for the school Association in this confidence school as a consequence of the city, join with the left would held to the control the city, join with the left would to the control the c nd will have one night set apart specially for it. The Purim Association, of which Moses H. loses has been President for many years, and high has, by its annual balls, raised $135,000 or distribution among the Hebrew charities, ill have a floral arbor forty feet high, and ope to realize $10,000 from it.

A Moorish candy booth will be in charge of the Ladies' Auxiliary Society of the Monteliore one.

Home.
Mrs. J. H. Heavenrich and Mrs. Lewis May will preside over the Temple Emanuel's seven tables of costly things.
There will be a gyosy camp by the Shaaray Teflia and a Turkish bazaar by the same society. The Spanish-Fortuguese congregation, Ahawath Chesed: the ladies of the Kindergarten, Young Women's Hebrew Association and the ladies of Temple Beth Eli will be actively engaged.

gaged.

More than $1,000,000 worth of paintings and other works of art have been loaned from the callections of C. P. Huntington, Godfrey Monneimer, Bosenberg Tolisa, Samuel Thomas, T. N. Vail, Henry Villard, Col. Catvin S. Brice, F. Blumenthal, Louis Stern, Solomon Loeb and others.

BITTEN BY A "WELSH RABBIT."

An English Barmaid's Remedy for an Overworked Digestion.

He was a San Franciscan in the played-out city of London, says the San Francisco Chronicle. He came from the West, where he had developed that independence and selfreliance which, combined with good looks and $20 gold pieces, made a man superior to all Europe. He strolled with graceful dignity into a gilded bar, over which presided a divinity of superb physical form, but still a woman, with that air which only an English barmaid can possibly put on-an air of mingled conceit, pride, coquetry and humil-

She awaited his order. He was dressed in the latest fashion. He threw the lapel of his coat back with a proud gesture, and, fixing his fascinating eye on the tar beauty, he saul:
"Tell me, my pretty maid, what can you suggest for a man who ate a Welsh rabbit last night and does not feel well this morn-

She did not smile; she did not appear to be affected by the aspearance of his swelling chest or his wicked eye; she simply said:

"Why didn't you heat two Welsh rabbits and let 'em chase heach hother?"

Monterey Is the Vessel's Name.

The new coast defense vessel, now being built at San Francisco, is to be known as the Monterey, in honor of the place where the American flag was first raised on the Pacific slope. Nearly every city on the Pacific coast applied for the honor, but Monterey least expected it. She is the first heavy armored vessel built on the Pacific coast. She will be launched about June, 1890. ----

TARE time by the forelock and try K-When for the fearful cough. You won't regret it if you do. "."

TIME IS BEATEN. DIED AT HIS CLUB. CLOSE TO MURDER.

Ahead of Her Schedule.

She Had a Pleasant Trip Over the Red and Arabian Seas.

And Hopes to Carry to Hong Kong the Two Days She Has Gained.

"The World's" Girl Traveller in the Best of Health and Spirits, Copyright, 1880, by The Press Publishing Company (New York World.) [SPECIAL CABLE DESPATCH TO THE WORLD.] COLOMBO, Island of Ceylon, Dec. 8. -I arrived here this morning safely on board the Peninsular and Oriental steamer Victoria two days ahead of schedule time. I was, unfortunately, unable to send off a despatch from Aden, six days ago, owing first to the short time we stayed there and again to the general confusion that prevailed in transferring passengers.

We had a pleasant trip through the big sea where Pharaoh and his hosts were engulfed in olden times, and when we once got on the Arabian Sea we made splendid time, excaping the monsoons, and thus getting here earlier than I anticipated.

If my good luck continues the Victoria will bring me through the Straits of Malacca to Penang on Dec. 14, to Singapore two days later and to Hong Kong Dec. 23. This is still maintaining our two days ahead which we have gained up to Colombo.

My journey has been made very pleasant for me through the courtesy of the Peninsular and Oriental people. I enjoyed my experiences thoroughly. The voyage from Brindisi, whence we sailed early on Monday morning, Nov. 24, was exceedingly rough, especially while passing within sight of the Albanian coast. On Tuesday we were in view of the island of Crete, On the morning of the 27th we came in eight of the low shores of Egypt. My impressions of the Suez Canal I have tried to give in my letter already sent you. It seemed slow voyaging while passing through M. de Lesseps's wonderful work, because I was so anxions to get ahead.

I am in the best of health and the brightest spirits and should feel better still. I think, if I had not the few days of com pulsory sojourn in Hong Kong ahead of me, waiting for the steamer thence to Yokohama. I hope to cable you on Friday night or Saturday morning from Penang.

NELLIE BLY.

WAS ANDERSON A TOOL?

Gov. Trask Thinks There Was a Plot to Put Him Out of the Way.

Enoch B. Anderson, the discharged inmate, who fired three shots from his revolver at Gov. G. D. S. Trask, of the Sailors' Snug Harbor, Saturday, makes a plea of self-defense now. He says that he intended to go to New York, and bought a ticket before entering the station. He met Gov. Trask on the platform and walked up to him and spoke to him. He alleges that the Governor scowled at him and struck Governor scowled at him and struck him a violent blow with his fist on the neck. He knew that Gov. Trask always went armed, and, fearing that the Governor would shoot him, he drew his pistol and shot in self-defense. Anderson has a mark on his neck which he says was caused by Gov. Trask's fist.

The Governor laughed when he heard this statement, and said that he first saw Anderson when he was ascending the stairs of the station while Anderson was coming down. Anderson saidenly turned on him and began firing. The Governor said that the mark on Anderson's neck might have been made when he clutched him by the throat after he had fired three shots. Gov. Trask's said that he believed Anderson was the tool of others who had concocted a plot to put him out of the way.

FOR KNIFING TURNER.

Frank Stevenson Expelled from the Tammany Hall Organization.

At a meeting of the Tammany Hall General Committee of the Seventh Assembly District Frank Stevenson, the captain of the Fourth Election District, was expelled from the organization. Stevenson is a wellknown follower of sports and was one of the prominent admirers of fistiana who witnessed the Suilivan-Kilrain prize fight. He is also the proprietor of a saloon on Bleecker street which has not the reputation of being a very respectable one. Sjevenson was expelled from Tammany Hall for treachery to Turner, the Iceman, in the recent Senatorial race in the Eighth District. The Tammany Hall county ticket received 145 votes in the election district which Stevenson had charge of, but Turner only got 24 votes. Stevenson's defense is that he did not think that Turner had any chance of winning, and that he traded Turner for votes for the Tammany Hall county ticket. He thinks he "played good politics."

The Wigwamites say that Stevenson is a friend of Postmaster Van Cott and that he generally does on election day inst what the Republican leaders of the Seventh District request him to. The friends of the Postmaster deny this and say that Stevenson is more of an independent guerilla than a stanch Tammanyite. a very respectable one. Stevenson was ex-

Two Accidents in Two Hours [SPECIAL TO THE WORLD]

RUTLAND, Vt., Dec. 8.—William Hazard, an employee of the Hazard Slate Company, instantly killed Saturday by being was instantly killed Saturday by being crushed between a large slab of slate and a dumping eart. His head was crushed to a jelly. Two hours afterwards afterfife boiler explosion occurred at Owen & Robertss state quarry, throwing pieces of the boiler 100 feet in the air. Morris Francia, the engineer, was thrown about eighty feet and had a leg broken. John D. Owens was thrown about one hundred and fifty feet and is so injured he will probably die.

Nellie Bly Reaches Ceylon Two Days Banker Harvey Kennedy Succumbed to Faith Curists' Children Denied Treat Peritonitis This Morning.

League Apartments.

Harvey Kennedy, banker and broker, and one of the most widely known members of the Stock Exchange, died suddenly in his apartments, at the Union League Club this morning.

Street Brokers.

He had not been ill twenty-four hours. He attended St. Thomas's Church in the best of health and spirits yesterday morning, and returned to the Club about 1 o'clock in the

After lunch he complained of not feeling well, and about 3 o'clock became so ill that he had to and about 3 o'clock became so ill that he had to go to bed.

Dr. Purely, his family physician, was summoned to attend him, and he called in three other physicians, but their united efforts falled to save their patient's life.

Peritonitis is given as the cause of death.

Mr. Kennedy was a widower without children and about sixty-three years oid.

He was building a magnificent residence at 675 Fifth avenue, which he proposed to occupy with some of his relatives.

Mr. Kennedy was reputed to be a millionaire, but has recently lost large sums of money in stock transactions.

He was a special member of the brokerage

Fourteen days were occupied by the National ner Helvetia in her voyage from Liverpool, head gales and high seas prevailing during the entire passage.

Isilard Smith was a passenger on the Aurania. Capt. Peterson, of the steamship Burger-meister, from Hamburg, reports that on Nov. 28, in latitude 39 degrees and longitude 49 degrees, he encountered a hurricane from southeast to northwest, causing a terriflic cross sea, which frequently broke over the decks and caused some slight damage to the upper works. Spars of the sunken barse Benefactor stand six feet above the surface about one and a half miles southeast of Shrewsbury Rock buoy, making a dangerons obstruction to navigation. A gale prevailed on Manhattan Island last night. Signs and shutters were rattled by a wind that travelled eighteen miles an heur through the avenues of New York, while pedestrians were soaked by a warm, penetrating rain. The storm came from beyond Chicago, and is to-day spending itself at the mouth of the St. Lawrence.

At Block Island the wind is to-day blowing head gales and high seas prevailing during the to-day spending itself at the mouth of the St. Lawrence.

At Block Island the wind is to-day blowing twenty-rour miles as a hour towards the shore, and all along the New England coast last night the wind registered from thirty to sixty miles an hour. Storm signals are flying all along the coast, from New York to Eastport, Me.

Another storm is forming over Montana, coming this way.

New York had a temperature of 54 degrees at 9 o'clock, while in Minnesota the mercury was

New York had a temperature of 54 degrees at 8 deleck, while in Minnesota the mercury was 8 degrees below zero, and even Washington, Philadelphia and 8t. Louis are colder than New York by two to four degrees.

Sergt. Dunn, the weather observer in the tower on the Equitable building, says to-day teat, while storm and wind raged last night on the great lakes and all over New England, the prospect is for clear and cooler weather here.

COST OF OFFICE-SEEKING.

Congressmen Whose Candidacles Cost

Less Than $100. "It costs very much more to run for office now than it did twenty or twenty-five years ago," said one of Buffalo's most prominent citizens to a Buffalo Express reporter. ''I remember asking my father how much it had cost him to be elected to Congress, and he told me that the Committee had taxed him $100.

"I doubt if be ever paid over $200. But in those days we had few foreigners, and the best men turned out and worked for their favorites. The straight ticket was almost universally voted, because the parties put up their best men.
"Now everything is changed, and the politicians are professionals. Such men as Fill-more, Haven and Hall would have little show of going to Congress at the present day, and it's probably a good thing for them that they lived thirty years ago, but I wish we had a few such men in office now." Mr. Coogan Buys the Rockaway Hotel. James J. Coogan has purchased the large rounding property into Rockaway Park, on which cottages of a fixed style of architecture will be built. The hotel will contain about 300 rooms, and will be about size of the Manhattan Beach Hotel. The laud has been bought from Austin Corbin.

hotel at Rockaway and will transform the sur-

"Y. & S." Stick Licarico invariably offered by dealers as the very best, "." ment for Scarlet Fever.

But a Few Hours Sick in His Union Fanatical Parents Lodged in a Brooklyn Jall.

Health Board Measures to Stop the He Was One of the Best-Known Wall Spread of the Dreaded Disease.

> Judge Tighe's court-room in Brooklyn was thronged with Faith Curists this morning, who had gathered to witness the arraignment of Johan Jansen, of 666 Henry street, and the two Faith Curist nurses, Maria Petersen and Amed Jansen, arrested yesterday at the instigation of > the Brooklyn Board of Health. Jansen had occupied for the past week a small room on the ton floor of the tenement-house at 000 Henry street. Saturday it was reported that his wife Hannah and and his six-months old child Johan were ill and refused to receive medical treatment.

The Board of Health and the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children found that the child was sick with a combination of diphtheria and scarlet fever, and that the mother had a severe case of diphtheria.

It was also learned that they had moved only a week ago from 43 Woodhull street, where a similar case existed in the family of a man named Larsen, who is now under bail awaiting

Mr. Kennedly was reputed to be a millionaire, but has recently lost large sums of money in stock transactions.

He was a special member of the brokerage and countered sages at 88 Broadway.

He was one of the most pomilar brokers on the two nurses who came in occasionally and prayed for them. Capture, Racquet and American Jockey Clubs, and was one of the most pomilar brokers on throker of Commodore Manderbilt, Harry Tracy and other magnates.

He came to this city from his birthplace in Monigomery County, when twenty-five years oid, and engaged in the stove buchness on Water Two years oi, is satisfied his ambition in that direction, and them he became a Wall street broker.

He was married about twenty-six years when the has three brothers and a sister living in various parts of the Stake, and no arrangements for the Tuneral will be made until they can be communicated with.

GALE-VEXED SHIPS.

Incoming Steamships' Experiences with Hurricanes and Mountainous Wayes.

Incoming Steamships' Experiences with Hurricanes and Mountainous Wayes.

Incoming steamships bave strived at this port to-day and report experiences similar to those of the four which came in yesterday.

To-day's arrivals were the Cunarder Anrania, the Hamburg steamship Polaria, and the French ship La Normandie. Each reports having choose the proper medical treatment. He Hamburg steamship Polaria, and the French ship La Normandie. Each reports having content of the proper medical treatment. He Capua, which came in present quantities of water, and passengers could but rarely come on deck.

The Capua, which came in from Brazil yesterday, connotrered a spee gales, the Polaria having force of sense there are all the people in the vicinity of head gales. She shipped great quantities or water, and passengers could but rarely come on deck.

Fourteen days were occupied by the National Layling FOR CANVASBACKS.

LAYING FOR CANVASBACKS.

Luxurious Arrangements for Duck-Shooting on the Chesapeake.

A glance at a map of the country between Baltimore and the east side of the Susquehanna River, and from the Philadelphia, Wilmington and Baltimore Railroad south to the Chesapeake Bay," says the Baltimore Sun, "will show the waters where the sportsmen kill thousands of ducks each season, Almost every foot of available land bordering on the waters where the ducks feed is either in possession of some sportsman who uses it for his own shooting or is owned by a ucking club. Thousands of dollars have been spent on many of the shores, and the club-houses are as comfortable as money can make them. They are well constructed and many are handsomely furnished—gas, heat, hot and cold water being supplied in some. A few are especially fitted with a wiew to the comfort of the members' wives and families.

It is rare that the ladies try their hand at duck shooting. They usually remain indoors while their husbands slaughter the ducks. One Baltimore gentleman, who is often ac-companied to his shore by his wife, exacts a promise from her before they start that she will in no way interfere with his servants or household affairs while at the house.

household affairs while at the house.

The club gunner is in the business for the sport it furnishes. He is generally a wealthy city gentleman who can afford to indulge his love of sport and who finds diversion from business cares at the shores. He is equipped with all the paraphernalia necessary to make his shooting a success. His clothing is of the warmest kind, and frequently there is an attendant who carries the club member's gun and anympition and who brings in the and ammunition and who brings in the ducks slaughtered by the aforesaid club-man, who remains in a dry blind or tub. For him the sport loses all of its uncomfortable feathe sport loses all of its uncomfortable fea-tures, but all of its pleasures are retained.

The ducks are becoming more scarce yearly. There is still, however, a supply that makes the sport a choice one, and it is enjoyed by thousands of Baltimoreans every season. Many who cannot get shores to their liking on the rivers at the head go lower down in the bay for their shooting.

There has been much complaint among the supports that the feeding grounds in the gunners that the feeding grounds in the rivers are covered with mud brought down by the floods, and especially those in the upper parts of the streams, and that the ducks can be found only at the mouths of the rivers or in the bay. Just what chances the ducks have in the rivers emptying into the upper part of the bay is a mystery, as both shores are a skirmish line of runners trying to inveigle the ducks to destruction.

A Bright Child.

Mrs. A. -Just think, Mrs. B., my little Mollie ost a dollar bill on her way to the grocery. Mrs. B. (proudly)-That couldn't happen to ny little Fanny. She is too smart for that;

ann't you. Fanny:
Fanny—Guess I couldn't lose my dollar bill when you never send any money to the grocer's.
He always writes it down in a book, and when he wants any money from us he has to come five

2 O'CLOCK.

IS THIS THE END?

No More Evidence to Be Taken in the Dock Investigation.

A Preliminary Report to Be Submitted to the Mayor.

Dismissals by the Board and Indietments by the Grand Jury Expected.

The investigation in the Dock Department was suspended temporarily to-day, and a report of the evidence is to be submitted to the Mayor. At the same time, it is said, a copy of the report and evidence will be forwarded to District-Attorney Fellows, who may find occasion to call the attention of the Grand Jury to the criminal actions which are suggested in some of it. Comptroller Myers was the first witness called n the investigation this morning. He had been asked to testify regarding any check which the Finance Department had on the vonchers of the Dock Department.

"We have no check on dredging accounts but the indersement of the Dock Commissioners," testified the Comptroller. "The vonchers never come to us until the work is completed, and as it is under water we cannot ascertain fit is absolutely correct.

"It is impossible to arrive at any accurate conclusion if the vonchers are correct or fraudulest."

conclusion if the vouchers are correct or fraudulent."

Most of the audits of the Union Dredging Company's bills which Corporation Counsel Clark called Mr. Myere's attention to, show that the prices fixed are "by special agreement."

The Comptroller explained that there is no agreement in writing fixing the prices to be naid and no resolution of the Dock Board, and there is a special agreement simply because the Treasurer's orders, certified to by the Dock Board, make a contract binding on the city.

The Comptroller called attention to the fact that the Commissioners of Accounts had examined every one of the bills regarding which he was being interrogated, and that they had indorsed all of them as being correct.

A bill was shown where the Union Dredging Company had been paid for a large quantity of mud." estimated in place, and the Comptroller said that this was not audited until the chief engineer of his Department certified that the work had been done and was accurately measured.

LANDLORD MORTON'S HOTEL.

The Luxurious Caravansary Built by Our Vice-President. The big pile is seven stories high, says Washington letter to the Chicago Tribune, but it seems of greater height, as the surrounding houses are from two to three stories. It is built of pressed brick, with trimmings of Ohio stone, and, like most modern buildings, follows the Italian style of architecture. Two series of bow windows of stone, connected by wrought-iron balconies, ornament both faces and promise well for the beauty of the roo the symmetry of the structure. Rounding half-towers complete either end, and a larger one where the turret from street to street is made adds much to the beauty of the building. The entrance is on Fifteenth street, and on it the architects show their best work.

A big flight of stone steps leads up to a doorway made of panels or French plateglass, above which the name "Shoreham" is inscribed in git letters on glass. A rounded arch, supported on sturdy Tuscan pillars and bearing above it entablatures carved in exquisite alto-relievo flower designs, makes a noble setting for the brilling doorways.

quisite alto-relieve flower designs, makes a noble setting for the brilliant doorways.

A vestibule with marble flooring serves to screen the offices, and this gives at once a key to the character of the house.

Every attempt has been made to give to it an air of privacy, and all signs of business and money exchange are avoided. A handsome room at the left is the ladies' parior. It is furnished in the style of Louis Quinze. The marquetry floors are covered with rich rugs, the furniture is upholstered in satins of light tone and the walls and ceilings are frescoed in the daintiest designs.

At the right of the vestibule is a cosy corner devoted to smoking. Beyond the smoking-room is a big apartment that will in coming years see some of the most noted gatherings of the capital. It is the private dining-room, where the wealthy guests of the house will give their entertainments. The furniture is of antique oak, as it is throughout the house.

out the house.

The public dining-room is back of this apartment. It varies somewhat from the ordinary room of the kind in hotels in that it is divided on either side by six abutments into stalls where people can eat without being obliged to stare at their neighbors going through the same process.

The public cafe is on the H street side and the kitchens, pantries and laundries are in the rear in separate buildings. A big spiral stairway of wrought iron takes up the centre of the house and makes a fine passage of air currents.

A dome of translucent glass at the head of

A dome of translucent glass at the head of the stairway lets in enough softened light to fill every hallway. All the floors are of marble, the walls of a hard cement of ashes and plaster, the lathing of wire, outside walls lined with terra cotta, practically making a fireproof building, as the only wood used is in the window frames and doors.

There are 210 rooms, made into forty-five suits of from two to six apartments. Forty single rooms will be reserved for transient guests. Next to the corners the most desirable suits are in the entresol—the half story above the ground floor on H street.

It is here Vice-President Morton has stopped on his short trips to the capital, and three rooms will be kept for him there until his family move into the Belt mansion on Scott Circle.

To Demand More Public Schools.

The School Conference Committee has issued a call to citizens who are unable to place their children in the public schools, owing to their crowded condition, to assemble in front of the City Hall before noon on New Year's Day and request the Mayor to prepare an act for the Legislature remedying the evil.

Colgate's Sachet Powders ntless uses during the Holiday season. "."

CHILDREN cry for the E-WREN COUGH BALGAM and TROCHES, as they cure them of croop instantly.